

Instructor's Course for Transit Trainers (FT00562 -A)

The Florida Department of Transportation's Florida Transit Safety and Operations Network Program, administered by the USF Center for Urban Transportation Research (CUTR), will be presenting the Instructor's Course (FT00562 -A). This course is sponsored by the Federal Transit Administration Office of Transit Safety and Security and the USDOT Transportation Safety Institute, and is a requirement to achieve the FDOT Florida Transit Operator Trainer Training Certificate.

Date & Time:

December 4-8, 2017
8:00am-4:30pm (Monday-Friday)

Host Agency/Training Location:

Dept. of Transportation & Public Works
Rail & Technical Training Center
6601 NW 72nd Avenue
Miami, Florida 33166

Overview:

This instructor-led course provides a standardized training program that can be used by any transit service provider to train qualified, professional bus/paratransit operators. Instructors are trained in presentation and creative learning techniques, facilitation methods, and adult learning principles for teaching operators skills in vehicle operation, emergency management, and customer relations.

Course participants will receive TSI course materials for vehicle operations, emergency management, and customer relations, plus road training guidelines. Upon completion of this course, instructors are qualified to train bus and paratransit operators by the US Department of Transportation.

NOTE: A classroom version of the Curbing Transit Employee Distracted Driving (FT00555) and the Fatigue and Sleep Apnea Awareness for Transit Employees (FT00588) seminars will also be presented.

Who should attend:

Driver trainers, bus/paratransit operator trainers, safety managers, safety supervisors, training managers.

Fees:

There are no fees to attend this course for current employees of a Florida public transit agency and who meet criteria identified in the Transit Training Policies and Procedures. All participants must have permission from their transit system's operations manager to attend this course. Upon acceptance of registration, participants will receive a logistical confirmation with travel authorization form via email.

NOTE: This course is a requirement to graduate from the Florida Transit Operator Trainer Training Certificate Program. Upon registration approval, travel reimbursement may be available to class participants who travel more than 50 miles one way to the training site, and meet the requirements set forth by state of Florida travel policies and procedures. Airfare and car rental reservations must be arranged through CUTR.

All travel arrangements must be pre-authorized by CUTR at least 15 business days prior to the training. Registrants should request the required pre-travel USF Travel Authorization Form (including airfare and car rental requests) from Molly Buffington via email at buffington@cutr.usf.edu or fax (813.974.5168) before November 3.

How to Register

All registrations must be made through the Florida Department of Transportation's Office of Freight, Logistics and Passengers Operations Transportation Learning Management System. This online registration and learning management system (LMS) provides Florida's public transportation professional a portal to manage their professional development.

Transportation Learning manages training for you by keeping an educational transcript of all new courses that you complete, and a retrievable record is maintained so you may access (with a user id and password) Certificates of Completion, Certificates of Participation, retrieve course materials, etc.

Florida's public transportation professionals may set up a unique user id and password to register online for upcoming transit training courses, including e-learning courses. Follow the instructions below to log-in or to register for the training course.

Go to: www.transportationlearning.org

Unsure if you have an account? Use the "Forgot Password" link to look up your account information using either your work/personal email address or username. If you cannot locate your account information please contact Stephanie Lewis at zavacki@cutr.usf.edu or (813) 974-1123 before setting up a new account.
