

Transit System Security (FT00432)

The Florida Department of Transportation and the Florida Statewide Transit Technical Assistance and Training Program administered by the USF Center for Urban Transportation Research will present the Transit System Security (FT00432) on March 11-15, 2019 in Tampa, Florida. The Federal Transit Administration (FTA) Office of Transit Safety and Security and the USDOT Transportation Safety Institute sponsor this course.

Date and Times:

March 11-15, 2019

Monday-Thursday; 8:00am-4:00pm

Friday; 8:00am-12:00pm

Host Agency:

USF Center for Urban Transportation Research
Tampa, Florida

Course Description:

This 4½ day course will provide participants the opportunity to develop an increased knowledge of Transit System Security and how it relates to Safety Management Systems (SMS), gain new resources to reduce crime, and improve customer and employee security. You can learn how to use a uniform format for developing and implementing security policies and procedures through a System Security Plan (SSP) with crime prevention as the major component. Included are basic security terms, the eight steps in the threat and vulnerability identification and resolution process.

Course Elements:

- Introduction to system security
- Why transit security
- Transit security countermeasures
- Development of a System Security Plan and security policies and procedures
- Threat and Vulnerability Assessment
- Procurement and security activities
- Security force establishment
- Problem oriented/problem solving security
- Managing the media
- Crime prevention
- Selling security to management and the public
- Group exercises: Security issues and TVA/Security Assessment
 - (PPE required: leather upper, flat sole shoes)
- Pretest, quiz, final exam

Who Should Attend:

Security Plan Developers, Security Plan Administrators, Security Plan Implementers, SSO Personnel, Safety Directors, General Managers, Law Enforcement Personnel, Risk Management Personnel, Security Personnel, Operations Personnel, Maintenance Personnel, Federal, State, Local Officials, Transit Security Personnel, Transit Insurance Providers

Fees:

There are no fees to attend this course for current employees of a Florida public transit agency and who meet the criteria identified in the Transit Training Policies and Procedures. All participants must have permission from their transit system's operations manager to attend this course. Upon acceptance of registration, participants will receive a logistical confirmation with travel authorization form via email.

USF is an Equal Opportunity/Equal Access Institution. For disability accommodations, please contact Molly Buffington at buffington@cutr.usf.edu a minimum of ten (10) working days in advance to the training session.

Registration Deadline is February 18, 2019

NOTE: There are no travel reimbursement opportunities available for this course.
All travel and lodging expenses are that of the traveler or their agency.

How to Register

For this course please register online via: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/J36WC2B>

Visit www.cutr.usf.edu to find additional transit training opportunities, workshops, conferences, and special events.
To review policies and procedures of the training programs visit Transit Training Policy & Procedures.
For questions regarding this training course, please contact Molly Buffington at via email at buffington@cutr.usf.edu.
For LMS questions or technical assistance, please contact Stephanie Lewis at zavacki@cutr.usf.edu.